“ My dad Julius Alber and Sylvia’s mother Lillian Alber Finkbeiner were brother and sister. Sylvia’s father William Finkbeiner and my mother Dorothy Finkbeiner Alber were brother and sister. So that cross marriage between the Albers and Finkbeiners made me and my brother and sisters “double first cousins” with Sylvia and her siblings. We shared the same family connection, went to school together, belonged to the same denomination of worship and grew up on farms close to each other. I was saddened to hear of Sylvia’s passing; we will miss her but know that she is in a better place.

“ Karen - I have a wonderful memory of your mother. 7th grade, I was new to Saline and painfully shy. You invited me to your house. Your mom was so kind and gentle and had a lovely sense of humor. She made me feel welcome and even loved. In that short afternoon, just by being herself, she taught me what kindness looks like. It's something I'll never forget. I'm sure you miss her terribly. I'm so sorry for your loss.
