“ Terry and I go back to our college days where we met in 1972. We had to live in a dorm then and were on the same floor. His nickname at college was “friend” as he was a friend to all. Terry was Best Man in our wedding some 46 years ago and since then we have always kept in touch, either thru a phone call or visits. Always good times and plenty of laughs. Rest in Peace dear friend ~ you will be missed. Mike and Patti Sheevy

“ Uncle Terry always found a way to have fun. So many cherished memories, and smiles when looking back over the years. I could call him to talk about anything. He always had his family's back. He held my hand with buying my first car. He was a cherished uncle that was like your big brother and best buddy. He will be incredibly missed, and forever remembered. May he rest in peace. And as he would say, Go Blue. Love you Uncle Terry.
