He worked for The National Park Service for many years in Yellowstone National Park and later at Sleeping Bear National Lakeshore in Michigan. He loved all of northern Michigan, especially Torch and Higgins Lakes. He knew every northern road and would drive his jeep all over the north country. He enjoyed cruising around Torch Lake in his restored 1961 Century Sabre inboard boat, the "Elizabeth B," named for his loving sister. Tom is missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. His family would like to thank the wonderful physicians and medical personnel who attended him in his illness, both at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor and at Sparrow Hospital in Lansing. Box 706, Bellaire, MI, 49615, or to The Lakeside Memorial Fund, 5805 Summerset Drive, Midland, MI, 48640, or to a charity of one's choice. Envelopes will be available at the church.
