“ My friendship with Vicki goes back to when our daughters were in kindergarten. Soon after we became workmates and in every situation she was a kind, generous and loving person. She enjoyed people. We loved to share funny stories about the kids we worked with. Many kids would come by her office to share with her what they were up to and she was always attentive and appreciative of their skills and stories. In the last few years, after we both retired, I continued to enjoy seeing her around town and catching up with her (mostly about our grandchildren)!

“ I worked with Vicki for my nearly 20 years at Dexter Community Schools. She welcomed me with same warm smile and conversation that she gave me at my goodbye. I cannot say enough good things about the support she gave me both professionally in her position and personally as a friend throughout the years and even after we retired. I will miss the way only Vicki could welcome me with her sweet little smile, in innocently sassy Vicki sweet way, in almost southern little drawl, "Hello Mz. Doorri". ❤️ My sincere condolences and prayers to her friends and family for a life unexpectedly and unfairly cut short of a beautiful and kind woman. - Dori Gross

“ Vicki had a sweet, tender way with students. That included her adult students who she helped transition into early uses of technology and beyond.. She was patient and encouraging especially with those who were resistant or just plain inexperienced. She loved learning and sharing all that was new. She never spoke negatively about her work or challenges.

Vickie's eyes smiled when she smiled. She was loved by so many. With condolences to her whole family.
