“ Dear Cousins Deb, Larry and Bruce, I am so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. Doug just told me. (He's on a long vacation without internet in upper Mich, but found Larry's e-mail while on a brief visit to town Saturday).

Virginia and I found a very nice reacquaitance in the mid-eighties and we wrote often for many years. I enjoyed sharing such simple things with her as her old high school geography book (which she didn't know I had, and that we both treasured), and her sending me her wonderful essay on the first day on the farm with electricity, when she was eleven. (She was a fine writer, and I enjoyed reading about her worldwide escapades).

And there was the time when Deb and her and I stood for a long time on Jerusalem road in front of her old green stone farm house in 2006 (on my last visit) and her telling me it would probably be the last time we would see each other. Years earlier she was kind enough to send me the only surviving page of my prolific childhood crayon drawings of cowboys and indians and horses. I probably drew it at your old house. It made a nice link back to that time and place.

In later years I was pleased we had such nice visits together so long after the 'big break,' which we seemed to heal between ourselves (and Doug, too). We had some good laughs together and we were both happy to discover that we had much in common.

More to say later, with deepest sympathy, -Keith Brewer, Seattle

“ Dear Larry, Bruce, Debbie and families, Arly sent me the obituary info today. Your mom and dad were very special people and I remember all the good times we had together, especially on our joint vacations. Your mom was a very busy lady and led a very full and rewarding life. I am sure you all will miss her. I just wanted to let you know that I am keeping you all and your families in my prayers.

“ Dear Debby, Larry, Bruce, and families,
I got Larry's phone message shortly before I had to get in the car to take a flight to the U.P. today. I will try to call along the way.
I am so sorry for the loss of dear Virginia. I so enjoyed knowing her, and the having visits with her here, in MA, and in Michigan. She was always so welcoming when I was a child and our family came to Saline, and it was so great to have Carr cousins to play with! I know you will all miss her so much, so take comfort in each other.

*My thoughts and prayers are with you,
Love, Cousin Cynthia Carr-Kramer*

“ Dear Debbie and Aaron, So very sad about your loss. Even though we know Virginia lived a full, rewarding life it is still not easy to lose someone who is such an important part of your life. My thoughts and prayers are with you both and your family. Love, Terrie, Chuck and Gerry.
