“ I only met Uncle Bill once when I was very small. He was my Grandmother's brother and I am sorry I didn't know he had passed. I will pray for everyone.

“ Uncle Junior was always kind and considerate of others. He never left me without saying a sweet and encouraging word. His soft, tender and kind ways were a tribute to a strong, yet gentle giant. The time spent in California and Indiana was precious and have never been forgotten. His memory will live on forever!
