“ To Bill's family: I want to extend my sincere sympathy in his passing and your tremendous loss. Bill was a kind and gentle man. He and my late husband, Bill Fanning, coached Little League Baseball together for many years. They shared the same philosophy in how to treat their players. I think that is why they were good friends. Lindsay and Brian, I know you have suffered loss before in the tragic loss of your beautiful mother, Louise. May Bill's loving spirit remain in your hearts forever. With time the sad moments will come less often and stay a shorter time.

*With love and peace,

I have known Bill since we were neighbors on Dexter Rd. We were in grade school at that time. We ran into each other from time to time through the years mostly at Knight's Steakhouse. Bill was a wonderful person and will be missed by many. My heartfelt condolences go out to Bill's family. God Bless
